Butler County TID elects new officers

FAIRFIELD (February 16, 1999) The Board of Trustees of the Butler County Transportation Improvement District elected a new slate of officers on Monday, February 8. Mike Samoviski, director of public works for the City of Hamilton, was re-elected Chair of the Board. Ronald G. Reynolds, executive vice president and chief financial officer for Midwest National Mortgage Banc Inc., was re-elected Vice Chair. David Gully, Union Township Administrator, was re-elected Secretary/Treasurer.

All three officers, who will serve through the end of 1999, were unanimously elected by Board members present at the meeting. The elections took place during an open, public session of the Board's regular monthly meeting.
